ARTH 260  FALL 2021

Art and Activism

Can Art Effect Social Change?

Q. And babies?
A. And babies.

I-Series / Humanities / Scholarship in Practice
Professor Abigail McEwen
Lecture: Monday/Wednesday, 10-10:50

This course explores the modern and contemporary history of political art and arts activism. From the Russian and Mexican Revolutions to the Vietnam War, Feminism, AIDS, and Occupy Wall Street, we consider questions of creativity and social efficacy as well as the role of institutions and the public.

For more information, email Professor McEwen at mcewen@umd.edu